- 7. Make all arrangements for the care, supervision, custody, conduct maintenance and support of the child, including medical care.
- 8. Authorize the home or facility to use this agreement as the parent or guardian's legal consent for medical care, school attendance and other services the child may need, with the exceptions listed on this agreement, if any.

CHILD'S RIGHTS

Every child in a community care facility has the rights listed in Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations. If your child is in a foster family home, your child's rights are:

- 1. To be accorded dignity in his/her personal relationships with staff and other persons.
- 2. To be accorded safe, healthful and comfortable accommodations, furnishings and equipment to meet his/her needs.
- 3. To be free from corporal or unusual punishment, infliction of pain, humiliation, intimidation, ridicule, coercion, threat, mental abuse, or other actions of a punitive nature, including but not limited to interference with the daily living functions, including eating, sleeping or toileting; or withholding of shelter, clothing, medication, or aids to physical functioning.
- 4. To be informed and to have his/her authorized representative, if any, informed by the licensee of the provisions of the law regarding complaints including, but not limited to, the address and telephone number of the compliant receiving unit of the licensing agency, and of information regarding confidentiality.
- 5. To be free to attend religious services or activities of his/her choice and to have visits from the spiritual advisor of his/her choice.
- 6. To leave or depart the facility at any time. (This provision shall not apply to minors and other clients for whom a guardian, conservator, or other legal authority has been appointed.)
- 7. Not to be locked in any room, building, or facility premises by day or night.
- 8. Not to be placed in any restraining device, except a supportive restraint approved in advance by the licensing agency as specified in Title 22, CCR, Section 80072(a)(8)(A) through (E).
- 9. To receive or reject medical care, or health-related services, except for minors and other clients for whom a guardian, conservator, or other legal authority has been appointed.
- 10. To visit the facility with his/her relatives and/or authorized representative(s) prior to admission.
- 11. To file a complaint with the facility, as specified in Title 22, CCR, Section 84072.2.
- 12. To have the facility inform his/her authorized representative(s) of his/her progress at the facility.
- 13. To have communications to the facility from his/her relatives and authorized representative(s) answered promptly and completely.
- 14. To have visitors visit privately during waking hours without prior notice, provided that such visitations are not prohibited by the child's needs and services plan; do not infringe upon the rights of other children; do not disrupt planned activities; and are not prohibited by court order or by the child's authorized representative.
- 15. To wear his/her own clothes.
- 16. To possess and use his/her own toilet articles.
- 17. To possess and use his/her own cash resources except as specified in Title 22, Section 84026.
- 18. To possess and use his/her own personal items unless prohibited as part of a discipline program.
- 19. To have access to individual storage space for his/her private use.
- 20. To have access to telephones in order to make and receive confidential calls, provided that such calls are not prohibited by the child's needs and services plan; are not prohibited as a form of discipline; do not infringe upon the rights of other children; do not restrict availability or the telephone during emergencies; and are not prohibited by court order or by the child's authorized representative(s).
- 21. To send and receive unopened correspondence unless prohibited by court order or by the child's authorized representative(s).

If your child is placed in a group home, California Code of Regulations Sections 80072 and 85072 list your child's rights, If your child is placed with a foster family agency, Sections 80072 and 83072 list your child's rights.
