Budget Trailer Bill, Senate Bill (SB) 1104 (Chapter 229, Statutes of 2004) adopted the Quality Assurance Initiative in the provision of supportive services (In-Home Supportive Services [IHSS]). Provisions from the legislation required the California Department of Social Services (CDSS) to adopt emergency regulations to implement amended Welfare and Institutions Code Section 12301.1 which authorizes varying intervals for assessing recipients' continuing needs for supportive services, and Section 12301.21 which requires the use of a standard statewide form to obtain medical certification for a person's protective supervision needs. The emergency regulations were effective June 26, 2006.

These regulations were considered at the public hearing held on August 16, 2006 in Sacramento, California. As a result of the testimony received and at the Department's discretion, minor changes have been made to the emergency regulations for clarity and consistency and are reflected in this manual letter.
