PERSONAL RIGHTS RESIDENTIAL CARE FACILITIES FOR THE ELDERLY

EXPLANATION: The California Code of Regulations, Title 22 requires that any person admitted to a facility must be advised of his/her personal rights. Facilities licensed for seven (7) or more are also required to post these rights in areas accessible to the public. Consequently, this form is designed to meet both the needs of persons admitted to facilities and the facility owners who are required to post these rights.

This form describes the personal rights to be afforded each person admitted to a facility. This form also provides the complaint procedures for the resident and representative. The facility staff or resident's representative must explain these rights in a manner appropriate to the resident's ability.

This form is to be reviewed, completed and signed by each resident and/or authorized representative upon admission to the facility. The resident and/or authorized representative also has the right to receive a completed copy of the originally signed form. This copy shall be retained in the resident's file, which is maintained by the facility.

Explanation: Each resident shall have rights which include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) To be accorded dignity in his/her personal relationships with staff, residents, and other persons.
- (2) To be accorded safe, healthful and comfortable accommodations, furnishings and equipment.
- (3) To be free from corporal or unusual punishment, humiliation, intimidation, mental abuse, or other actions of a punitive nature, such as withholding of monetary allowances or interfering with daily living functions such as eating or sleeping patterns or elimination.
- (4) To be informed by the licensee of the provisions of law regarding complaints and of procedures to confidentially register complaints, including, but not limited to, the address and telephone number of the complaint receiving unit of the licensing agency.
- (5) To have the freedom of attending religious services or activities of his/her choice and to have visits from the spiritual advisor of his/her choice. Attendance at religious services, either in or outside the facility, shall be on a completely voluntary basis.
- (6) To leave or depart the facility at any time and to not be locked into any room, building, or on facility premises by day or night. This does not prohibit the establishment of house rules, such as the locking of doors at night, for the protection of residents; nor does it prohibit, with permission of the licensing agency, the barring of windows against intruders.
- (7) To visit the facility prior to residence along with his/her family and responsible persons.
- (8) To have his/her family or responsible persons regularly informed by the facility of activities related to his/her care or services including ongoing evaluations, as appropriate to the resident's needs.
- (9) To have communications to the facility from his/her family and responsible persons answered promptly and appropriately.
