PURPOSE

The purpose of this errata is to amend the Amended and New Court Forms Table in ACL 23-10. The revisions made to the JV-462 were inaccurately stated and the JV-459\(A\) was erroneously transposed to read as JV-495(A). Below is the updated Amended and New Court Forms table with the inaccurate statement removed and the transposition corrected.

UPDATED TABLE: AMENDED AND NEW COURT FORMS

On January 1, 2023, Welfare and Institutions Code \(WIC\) 366.1\(h\)\(4\) and \(i\)\(2\) and the corresponding court forms JV-462 and JV-459(A) became effective and made available on the Judicial Council's website. The table below provides information as to the purpose and changes for each of the forms:

COURT FORM	PURPOSE	CHANGES
Form JV-462 Findings and Orders After Nonminor Dependent Status Review Hearing	To document findings and orders after a nonminor dependent status review hearing.	Revisions made to JV-462 include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Section 29a was added to enable the court to make the findings about whether the social worker or probation officer have completed all of their responsibilities related to verifying that the NMD has received the required education and has been informed of their sexual and reproductive rights and how to access care. 2) Section 29b was also added to the form to enable the court to order the social worker or probation officer to complete any of the tasks that were outstanding from Section 29a. 3) Section 30. a. added the requirements of Welf. & Inst. Code, § 16501.1(g)(22), (1) an individual or individuals have been identified to assist the nonminor dependent with applications for a. (2) postsecondary education, including career and technical education, and related financial aid (3) the name of the support person(s) to assist the nonminor dependent is, (4) an individual or individuals have not been identified to assist the nonminor dependent with applications for postsecondary education, including career and technical education, and related financial aid, (5) to assist the nonminor dependent in preparing for postsecondary education, the county agency must add to the case plan and provide the services.

JV-459(A) Status Review Attachment: Sexual and Reproductive Health Services	The Attachment is used for those hearings at which the findings are required.	New Form. The JV-459(A) Attachment was added because the Sexual and Reproductive Health Services findings are lengthy and only required for foster youth 10 years and older, in junior high, middle, or high school, and have been under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court for a year or longer. Because the finding will always be required for a nonminor dependent, the full list of findings are being included on forms related to nonminor dependent status review (forms JV-461(A) and JV-462)
JV-421, J4-430, JV-435, JV-440, JV-445, JV-446, JV-455, JV-461(A), JV-672, JV-647, and JV-678	Additional forms that include new education language	A section was added to enable the court to make the findings about whether the social worker or probation officer have completed all of their responsibilities related to identifying an individual or individuals to assist the child with applications for postsecondary education, including career and technical education, and related financial aid. This includes identifying the name of the individual(s) and relationship to the child. A section was also added to the form to enable the court to order the social worker or probation officer to complete any of the tasks that were outstanding related to this requirement.
