The graphic is a vertical rectangle with a green background. At the top, it says "ARE YOU GETTING CALFRESH?" in white, bold, uppercase letters, followed by a white checkmark icon. Below that, it says "LIVE IN AN AREA AFFECTED BY WILDFIRES OR POWER OUTAGES?" in white, bold, uppercase letters, also followed by a white checkmark icon. In the middle, it says "Individuals and families can now buy prepared or hot foods with CalFresh at stores that accept EBT through October 22." in black text. Below this text is a circular inset image of a sandwich with lettuce, tomato, and meat on a white plate. To the right of the sandwich image, it says "Applies to the following counties: Butte, Glenn, Plumas, Sutter, Tehama, and Yuba." in black text. At the bottom right, there is the CalFresh logo, which consists of the word "Cal" in a script font, "Fresh" in a bold sans-serif font, and "FOOD" in a smaller, bold sans-serif font below it, all in white on a red background.
