State Hearing: If you think this action is wrong, you can ask for a hearing. The back of this page tells you how.

For the period of _____ until _____, the County has approved your transportation for participating in your allowable Welfare to Work activity.

- The most we can pay is $ _____ for a total of _____ miles per _____.
- The County has approved $ _____ per _____ based on public transportation rates.
- The County has approved bus passes or tickets for a total of _____ per _____.

The County will only pay for transportation while you were attending your allowable Welfare to Work activity:

_____ .
Your transportation payment limit is figured on this notice.

Mileage for driving can be paid only if there was no public transportation available, or it cost the same or less than public transportation. Public transportation was available when it took a two hour or less round trip to get you from your home to your activity on time. You cannot count time it took you to go to and from your child's school or child care. If you drove your car even though public transportation was available, you will be paid at the public transportation rate or the mileage rate, whichever is lower.

Your transportation payments will be Advanced to you

YOUR HEARING RIGHTS

- You have the right to ask for a hearing if you disagree with any County decision regarding your status (standing) in Cal-Learn/Welfare to Work, your activity, or your supportive services.
- Asking for a hearing will not affect your CalWORKs cash aid.
- You have only 90 days to ask for a hearing.
- The 90 days started the day after we gave or mailed you a notice.

WHILE YOU WAIT FOR A HEARING DECISION

If you disagree with the County's decision about your Welfare to Work status or your activity:

- You do not have to participate.
- You can keep going to an unapproved self-initiated program, but we will not pay you any Welfare to Work supportive services or give you any other services.
- You can keep going or start going to an activity different from the one we referred you to, but we will not pay you any Welfare to Work supportive services or give you any other Welfare to Work services.
- You cannot keep going or start going to an activity different from the one we referred you to if the activity is open to Welfare to Work participants only.

If you disagree with the County's decision about your Cal-Learn status or your activity:

- You cannot come into the Cal-Learn program if we have told you we cannot serve you.
- Cal-Learn will pay only Cal-Learn supportive services for an approved Cal-Learn activity.

To get supportive services payments, you must go to the activity the County has asked you to go to.

If you disagree with the County's decision about your supportive services payments, and you attend your approved activity, the County will pay supportive services as follows:

- If we have told you your payments will be lowered, you will get the lower rate.
- If we have told you your payments will be made in a different form, you will be paid in the different form.
- If we have told you your payments will stop; you will not get any more payments, even if you go to your activity.
- If we have denied payments before the hearing, you will not get the requested payments.

If the amount of supportive services the County pays while you wait for a hearing decision is not enough, you can stop going to your activity.

You may get free legal help at your local legal aid office or welfare rights group, or from the CCWRO.

Hearing File: If you ask for a hearing, the State Hearing Office will set up a file. You have the right to see this file. The State may give your file to the Welfare Department, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. (W. & I. Code Section 10950).
