SUBJECT: MODIFIED RUTAN V. MCMAHON COURT ORDER ON THE AID TO FAMILIES WITH DEPENDENT CHILDREN PROGRAM (AFDC) LUMP SUM NOTICE

REFERENCE: ALL COUNTY LETTER (ACL) NO. 86-45 AND 86-84

This notice is to advise county welfare departments (CWDs) that as of August 1997, the California Department of Social Services will comply with the recently modified Rutan court order to annually mail a copy of the lump sum rule, the TEMP 2110A (8/97), to every assistance unit (AU). This notice will be mailed in August with the Department of Health Services' regular quarterly Medi-Cal mailing. This notice will only be mailed to the Aid to Families with Dependent Children recipient portion of the Medi-Cal caseload. This annual mailing requirement is in addition to the ongoing county requirement to provide the applicant with a copy of the lump sum notice at intake and the AU at the time of its redetermination (as outlined in ACLs 86-45 and 86-84). CWDs will need to translate and/or provide a translated copy of the TEMP 2110 (10/96) to some recipients who do not read English.

FORMAT

The TEMP 2110A, which is a modified version of the TEMP 2110 (10/96), is a multilingual form that is printed front-to-back on pink paper. English is on page one and Spanish on page two; however, the formats on each page differ slightly. Page one includes a box at the bottom of the notice that contains the following text translated into the Vietnamese, Cambodian, and Chinese: "If you cannot read this notice, ask your worker for a translation." Page two duplicates the format and text of the TEMP 2110 SP (10/96). A copy of the TEMP 2110A is attached to this notice.

TRANSLATIONS AND CAMERA-READY COPIES

Anytime a recipient calls and asks for a translation of the notice, counties are advised to use the narrative on the TEMP 2110 (10/96). To obtain a camera-ready copy of the Vietnamese, Cambodian, and/or Chinese versions, please FAX requests to the Language Services Bureau at (916) 657-3429 or CALNET 437-3429.

For camera-ready copies of the TEMP 2110, TEMP 2110 (SP), and TEMP 2110A, counties may call the Forms Management Bureau at (916) 657-1907 or CALNET 437-1907 or FAX requests to (916) 653-7395.
