ALL COUNTY LETTER (ACL) NO. 12-54

TO: ALL PRIVATE ADOPTION AGENCIES

SUBJECT: INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION PROGRAM QUARTERLY STATISTICAL REPORT AD 202B (1/13)

REFERENCE: ACL NO. 12-50 IMPROVED DATA COLLECTION FOR INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONS REVISED INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONS PROGRAM QUARTERLY STATISTICAL REPORT (AD 202B), DATED NOVEMBER 29, 2012

This letter is to inform private adoption agencies licensed for Intercountry Adoptions of the revised AD 202B form. The revised report form provides quarterly information about private adoption agencies’ activities on behalf of foreign-born children immigrating to California and California children emigrating to another country for purposes of adoption.

The revised form is based on the Hague Convention data and program requirements for ongoing policy and caseload data collection. The Hague Convention facilitates the adoption of foreign-born children by United States adoptive parents, either from Hague signatory countries or from non-signatory countries that qualify for immigration and automatic naturalization.

Adoption agencies are required to use the revised AD 202B (1/13) form beginning with the report quarter of January – March 2013. This quarterly report is due on or before the 30th calendar day of the month following the report quarter.

To complete the electronic form, a copy of the form and instructions can be downloaded from http://www.cdss.ca.gov/dssdb/. The completed AD 202B form may be scanned and e-mailed to the California Department of Social Services, Data Systems and Survey Design Bureau (DSSDB) at ADMReport202B@dss.ca.gov or it may be faxed to DSSDB at (916) 657-2074. The AD 202B form, instructions and validation rules are attached for reference.
If you have any questions regarding the completion of this report, please contact DSSDB at (916) 651-8269. Program related questions should be directed to the Permanency Policy Bureau at (916) 657-1858.

DEFINITIONS

Accredited agency: An agency that has been accredited by an accrediting entity to provide adoption services in the United States in cases subject to the Hague Convention. It does not include a temporarily accredited agency.

Adopt-abroad: Adoption of a foreign-born child by a United States citizen or a lawful permanent resident alien of the United States completed in foreign courts under the laws of the foreign country.

Adopt in California: For the purpose of an intercountry adoption, an adoption where an adoption agency arranges for the foreign-born child to travel to California without an adoption having been completed in a foreign country, places the child for adoption after arrival in California, and completes the adoption of the child under the laws of California’s Intercountry Adoption Program.

Alternative placements: A child placement made by the adoptive parent(s), child welfare agency, or licensed adoption agency with a different family or into an institutional setting.

Application: A written and signed application submitted by prospective adoptive parent(s) to a licensed adoption agency for the purposes of seeking an intercountry adoption.

Assessments: A written document which contains information relevant to the case situation and an appraisal of case services needs.

Child: For the purpose of an intercountry adoption, “child” means a foreign-born, unemancipated unmarried, person under the age of sixteen years.

Convention country: A country that is a party to the Hague Convention and with which the Convention is in force for the United States.

Dependent: As it pertains to public child welfare, a dependent of the court is a child who has met the criteria for dependency as defined in Welfare and Institutions Code, Section 300, for child abuse and/or neglect and is under the care and supervision of the court.

Disrupted placement: A child who came to the United States for the purpose of adoption but whose placement was terminated or who entered foster care prior to the finalization of the adoption regardless of the reason.

Dissolved finalization: A foreign-born child who was previously adopted (whether the full and final adoption occurred in the foreign country or domestically) but whose adoption was terminated or who entered foster care as a result of a court terminating the parent(s)’ rights or the parent(s)’ relinquishing their rights to the child.

Emigration: A child born in the United States and placed for adoption with a family in another country is referred to as an outgoing case or emigration. The Hague Convention governs adoptions from the United States to other Convention countries – not just adoptions coming into the United States.

Exempt provider: A social work professional or organization that performs a home study on prospective adoptive parent(s) or a child background study (or both) in the United States in connection with a Convention adoption (including any reports or updates), but that is not currently providing and has not previously provided any other adoption service in the case.

Foster care placement: The placement of a child in a licensed or certified home that provides 24-hour care and supervision for children who need temporary or long-term substitute care because their own parent(s)/guardian(s) are unable or unwilling to care for them. Foster placement is made by a child welfare social worker following a court order or voluntary placement agreement.

Immigration: Before a foreign adoption can take place, permission must first be obtained from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for the foreign child to be able to lawfully enter the United States for the purpose of being adopted. The Hague Convention governs adoptions from other Convention countries to the United States.

Intercountry adoption: The adoption of a foreign-born child for whom federal law makes a special immigration visa available. Intercountry adoption includes completion of the adoption in the child’s native country or completion of the adoption in this state.

Non-convention country: A country that is not a party to the Hague Convention.

Parent(s): Natural or adoptive father and/or mother, whether married or unmarried, or other adult(s) fulfilling the parental role.

Placement for adoption: The arrangement for the care of a child who has been freed for adoptive placement with a family that has been studied and approved for adoption by a licensed adoption agency with the intent of adoption of the child by the family.

Post-adopt services: Services provided following the finalization of an adoption.

Primary provider: The accredited agency, temporarily accredited agency, or approved person that is identified as responsible for ensuring that all six adoption services are provided and for supervising and being responsible for supervised providers where used.

Re-adopt: For the purpose of intercountry adoption, an adoption where a child previously adopted abroad is subsequently adopted in California.

Relinquishment: An action by a parent(s) who signs a relinquishment form in which he or she surrenders custody, control, and any responsibility for the care and support of the child to any licensed public or private adoption agency.

Supervised provider: Any agency, person, or other non-governmental entity, including any foreign entity, regardless of whether it is called a facilitator, agent, attorney, or by any other name, that is providing one or more adoption services in a Convention case under the supervision and responsibility of an accredited agency, temporarily accredited agency, or approved person that is acting as the primary provider in the case.

Visas: Children adopted in Convention countries receive IH-3 or IH-4 immigrant visas.

IH-3 visas are for children who are adopted in a Hague Convention country. Children who are under 18 automatically acquire U.S. citizenship upon entry to the United States on an IH-3 visa. In such cases, USCIS automatically sends Certificates of Citizenship without requiring additional forms or fees.

IH-4 visas are for children coming from a Convention country who will be adopted in the United States. IH-4 recipients do not automatically acquire U.S. citizenship, but are lawful permanent residents until the adoption is full and final.

Children adopted in non-Convention countries receive IR-3 or IR-4 immigrant visas.

IR-3 visas are issued after a full and final adoption is completed abroad by both adopting parents; both parents physically see the child prior to or during local adoption proceedings; and the country in which the child resides does not require re-adoption in the United States. Children who are under 18 automatically acquire U.S. citizenship upon entry to the United States on IR-3 visas. In such cases, USCIS automatically sends Certificates of Citizenship without requiring additional forms or fees.

IR-4 visas are issued to children for whom a full and final adoption will be completed in the United States. This classification is used when a foreign country only permits prospective adoptive parents to obtain guardianship of a child, rather than allowing a full and final adoption; and/or the prospective adoptive parent(s) have not seen and observed the child prior to the adoption process. Orphans admitted to the United States on IR-4 visas become lawful permanent residents and are automatically processed to receive an Alien Registration Card (“green card”).
