QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK REQUIREMENTS

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK REQUIREMENTS

All adults residing in the home must complete the criminal background check process before a license is issued. The background check consists of a Department of Justice (DOJ) check, Child Abuse Central Index (CACI) check and a Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) check.

WHO MUST GET A BACKGROUND CHECK?

- Applicant(s) for the child care license
- Any adult residing in the facility
- Any adult who provides care and supervision to children.
- Any adult employee or volunteer who has contact with the children.

HOW DO I START THE PROCESS?

If you are applying for a child care license with the California Department of Social Services (CDSS), information about how to submit your fingerprints will be mailed to you after a complete application is received and accepted.

If you are applying for a child care license in a county that contracts with the CDSS to license Family Child Care Homes, the County Licensing Office will provide you with instructions on how to submit your fingerprints.

NOTE: Do not schedule a LIVESCAN appointment until you receive a facility number from the licensing office. You must include the facility number on all LIVESCAN forms.

WHAT IF THE PERSON IS CONVICTED OF A CRIME?

Individuals convicted of a crime will be required to get a criminal record exemption from the Department before the license is issued. Information on what the exemption process consists of and how the Department evaluates criminal records may be found on the internet at the Community Care Licensing Division (CCLD) website at: www.cclcd.ca.gov, by clicking on the "Licensing Forms" link and going to the LIC 995E, Caregiver Background Check Process; LIC 995F, Caregiver Background Check Information; and by clicking on the link to the CCLD Homepage: "Information regarding the Background Check process." For direct access to these, click on the links below:

Caregiver Background Check Process, LIC 995E
Caregiver Background Check Information, LIC 995F
Background Check Process Information \(CCLD Homepage\)

WHAT IF A PERSON IS ARRESTED, BUT NOT CONVICTED?

The DOJ is responsible for providing this Department with any arrest information. Any arrest that does not result in a conviction will be evaluated and resolved prior to issuing a license or prior to a person being present in the Family Child Care Home.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I GET MY LICENSE?

Once you are licensed, it will be your responsibility to submit fingerprints for any additional adult(s) who will be moving into or working in your home. They must receive a California clearance or a criminal record exemption before they move in or begin work. This includes children residing in the home who are turning 18 years old. All of these adults must complete the Criminal Record Statement document \(LIC 508\).

If a person voluntarily discloses a history of criminal convictions on the LIC 508, submit the LIC 508 to the Licensing Program Analyst, along with any attachments. The person may need a criminal record exemption.
