HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

(a) To determine what constitutes an IPV, CDSS recognizes a distinction in the following:

(1) Intentional concealment or willful misrepresentation which may result in an IPV.

(SAR) EXAMPLE: In completing the Semi-Annual Eligibility Report (SAR 7), respondent reports that the family has no income. Respondent also states that no one had started employment in the SAR 7 Reporting Period. County evidence indicates respondent did start work during the SAR Data Month, but it was reported that no one had started work. Respondent also did receive earnings in each of the months under review.

(AR/CO) EXAMPLE: In completing the Statement of Facts (SAWS 2), respondent reports that the family has no income. Respondent also states that no one had started employment in the AR/CO Data Month. County evidence indicates respondent did start working during the AR/CO Data Month, but it was reported that no one had started work. Respondent also did receive earnings in the AR/CO Data Month.

(2) Incorrect representation, negligence, or omissions because of a mistake or a lack of understanding of eligibility requirements which do not result in an IPV.

HANDBOOK CONTINUES

(SAR) EXAMPLE: Respondent reports on the SAWS 2 that he/she began employment the last week of the fifth month of the SAR Payment Period and that he/she will be paid every two weeks. Respondent completes the subsequent SAR 7 and reports that they did not receive any income in the Data Month.

(AR/CO) EXAMPLE: Respondent reports on the SAWS 2 that he/she began employment the eleventh month of the AR/CO Payment Period Month and that he/she will be paid every two weeks. Respondent checks the box "No" for income received in the month.

(3) The CWD's omission, neglect, or error in explaining requirements for assistance or in processing information, which does not result in an IPV.

(SAR) EXAMPLE: Respondent completes the SAR 7 without answering the question relating to household's receipt of income during the Data Month. The county fails to return the SAR 7 as incomplete. Evidence establishes respondent had income during the Data Month.

(AR/CO) EXAMPLE: Respondent completes the SAWS 2 without answering the question relating to household's receipt of income during the AR/CO Data Month. The county fails to return the SAWS 2 as incomplete. Evidence establishes respondent has income during the Data Month.

- .4 In cases where a disqualification penalty and other sanctions or penalties apply:
 - .41 The disqualification penalties in Section 22-345 shall be in addition to, and cannot be substituted for, any other sanctions or penalties which may be imposed by law for the same offenses; and
 - .42 The disqualification penalties imposed under this program only affect the respondent concerned and cannot substitute for other sanctions under the AFDC program (e.g., failure to participate in JOBS or to cooperate in obtaining child support).
