- .712 The estimated number of extensions for each CWD shall be equal to 20 percent of the assistance units in that CWD in which all adult members of the assistance unit have exhausted their Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock and at least one adult remains eligible for aid under the CalWORKs 48-month time limit.
- .713 The Department shall estimate the number of assistance units that will meet the criteria provided in Section 42.708.712 in each CWD for each six-month period commencing January 1, 2015, and shall transmit the estimated number of extensions available to each CWD in a manner determined by the Department.
- .714 If the number of estimated extensions available for the current six-month period is lower than the prior six-month period and the CWD has already exceeded the new estimate, the CWD shall not rescind extensions already granted to accommodate the lower figure.
- .715 Each CWD shall report information regarding the number and percentage of extensions granted.
- .716 If a CWD grants more extensions than the number that was estimated by the Department in accordance with Section 42-708.713, the Department may request the CWD to provide additional information including the actual number of assistance units to exhaust the Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock during that six-month period and factors that contributed to the actual number of extensions granted.

- (a) The individual may present evidence to the CWD that he or she meets any of the following circumstances:
 - (1) The individual is likely to obtain employment within six months.
 - (2) The individual has encountered unique labor market barriers temporarily preventing employment, and therefore needs additional time to obtain employment.

HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

- (A) Example 1: An individual qualified in forklift operation that is applying for a position at a manufacturing warehouse that will be opening soon or at a new construction project may be considered as likely to obtain employment within six months.
- (B) Example 2: Unique labor market barriers temporarily preventing employment may include situations where a primary employer in the local area has closed or moved, such as a factory that has recently shut down operation or relocated out of the area. This would create a significant labor force disruption, particularly in the situation where the industry field of the primary employer required a specialized skill set that may not be easily transferable to a different industry field.
- (C) Example 3: Unique labor market barriers temporarily preventing employment may also include local or regional natural disasters, such as a drought or freeze, which impact local labor markets in a way that temporarily causes a disruption to the labor force.

- (4) The individual needs an additional period of time to complete a welfare-to-work activity specified in his or her welfare-to-work plan under Section 42-711.6, due to a diagnosed learning or other disability, which would meaningfully increase the likelihood of his or her employment.

 - (c) The circumstances and career goals of the participant.

.634 A welfare-to-work plan developed to utilize the Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock shall be consistent with the assessment conducted in Section 42-711.55, and designed to remove particular barriers to employment or to meet the career goals of the participant in achieving self-sufficiency.

Example 1: An individual completes an assessment that states she is required to participate in the welfare-to-work program. She is in a one-parent assistance unit with a seven year old child and she has significant barriers to employment. In the assessment it is noted that she may have a learning disability, she has a substance abuse problem, and she does not have a high school diploma. She meets with her caseworker after a learning disability evaluation has been completed and her welfare-to-work plan is written, consistent with her assessment and learning disability evaluation taking full advantage of her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock by having hours assigned for substance abuse services, adult basic education, and sufficient study time to accommodate her learning disability.

Example 2: An individual completes an assessment that states he is required to participate in the welfare-to-work program. He is in a one-parent assistance unit with a four year old child and has sufficient job skills and education. The assessment also states that he has suffered from mental health issues in the past. The CWD refers him to and he receives a mental health evaluation from the county mental health department. The participant meets with his caseworker shortly after the completion of the assessment and mental health evaluation. After discussing the results and the options available in regards to the Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock and CalWORKs federal standards, the participant expresses an interest in participating in mental health services as his sole activity for 20 hours per week. However, the mental health evaluation recommended that while he is stable at the time, he would benefit from bi-monthly counseling sessions. The CWD explains that while 20 hours a week of mental health services is not consistent with his assessment and mental health evaluation, the bi-monthly counseling sessions should be included in his welfare-to-work plan and works with him to find other activities to participate in that are consistent with his assessment.

Example 3: An individual completes an assessment that states she is required to participate in the welfare-to-work program. She is in a one-parent assistance unit with a two year old child and has limited job skills, a high school diploma, one year of college, and no noted barriers. She is currently working 20 hours per week as a waitress. She meets with her caseworker shortly after the completion of the assessment and they discuss the results of her assessment and the options available in regards to the Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock and CalWORKs federal standards. She tells her caseworker that she would like to stop working and go to the Radiologic Technology Program at the local community college to get a higher paying job. Even though she has not participated in a vocational education program while on cash aid, she tells her worker that she does not want a welfare-to-work plan designed to meet CalWORKs federal standards, as she wants to preserve her federal 12-month limit on vocational education. The caseworker explains to her that if she wants to attend the vocation education program full-time, she will be meeting CalWORKs federal standards and, therefore, must have a plan designed to meet CalWORKs federal standards. Her caseworker also explains that while she is meeting CalWORKs federal standards, those months will not count toward her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock, so she will be preserving those months for full-time education when she exhausts her 12-month limit on vocational education under CalWORKs federal standards. She signs a welfare-to-work plan designed to meet CalWORKs federal standards.

Example 4: An individual completes an assessment that states that he is required to participate in the Welfare-to-Work Program. He is in a one-parent assistance unit with a seven year old child. The assessment notes that he could benefit from some job skills training, but does not have any barrier due to lacking basic literacy. The participant is currently working 20 hours a week as a cashier in a convenience store, but his career goal is to become a plumber. To reach his career goal, the participant wants to return to a plumbing program at a local community college for 20 hours a week, including appropriate homework time, and reduce his work hours to 10 hours per week. Since his requested activities are consistent with his assessment, he and his caseworker agree to a 20-hour per week plumbing job skills training program and 10 hours per week of unsubsidized employment. Because he has already used his 12-month lifetime limit for participating in a vocational education program, the caseworker also explained that his plan is designed to utilize his Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock, but that if he chooses at any time to work at least 20 hours a week and participate in job skills for at least 10 hours a week he would be meeting CalWORKs federal standards and months would not count towards his Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock.

.64 The plan shall be written in clear and understandable language and have a simple, easy-to-read format. (Continued)

.642 The plan shall specify, and shall be amended to reflect changes in, the participant's welfare-to-work activities, a description of needed supportive services to be provided, and specific requirements for successful completion of assigned activities including required hours of participation.

(a) The plan shall also address school attendance of all children in the assistance unit for whom school attendance is compulsory, as specified in Section 40-105.5, and identify any participation required of the parent by the school to ensure the child's attendance. Such participation hours by the parent shall count toward the required hours of participation specified in Sections 42-711.4.

(b) The plan shall outline how hours of participation in welfare-to-work activities satisfy the participation requirements pursuant to Sections 42-709.2, 42-711.4 or 42-711.7.

(c) A participant in a welfare-to-work plan intended to meet CalWORKs federal standards shall meet those standards in accordance with the procedures specified in Section 42-709. In the case where a participant has not exhausted the Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock and is no longer meeting CalWORKs federal standards in accordance with those provisions, a new welfare-to-work plan designed to meet CalWORKs minimum standards shall be developed for the participant in accordance with this section.

.643 (Continued)

.644 If the CWD determines it to be appropriate and necessary for the removal of the participant's barriers to employment, an individual who lacks basic literacy or mathematics skills, a high school diploma or general educational development certificate, or English language skills, shall be assigned to participate in adult basic education as defined in Section 42-716.1(k).

.7 Post Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock Participation Requirements

.71 After an individual has exhausted his or her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock described in Section 42-708, unless otherwise exempt, or having received an extension to the 24-Month Time Clock, the individual must meet CalWORKs federal standards in accordance with Section 42-709 for the individual to continue receiving cash aid.

- .711 Except as provided in Section 42-711.72, an individual who fails to meet CalWORKs federal standards is subject to the noncompliance provisions pursuant to Section 42-721.
- .712 The term "removed from cash aid" instead of "sanctioned" shall be used when referring to an individual who is in the noncompliance process described in Section 42-721.
- .72 In a two-parent assistance unit, an adult who has exhausted his or her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock is excused from participation and will remain on aid when the second adult is the sole participant meeting CalWORKs minimum standards.

If an exempt volunteer engages in conduct that would bring about the sanction procedures described ~~below~~ in Sections 42-721.43 through .45, but for his or her status as a volunteer, the individual shall not be given priority over other participants actively seeking to participate.

.422 Except as specified in paragraph (a), an individual who chooses to include more participation hours in his or her welfare-to-work plan than is required pursuant to Section 42-711.4, shall not be subject to a sanction if the number of hours he or she completes in a week is at least the number of hours required in Section 42-711.4.

(a) Section 42-721.422 does not apply to individuals who fail to continue employment, or continue employment at the same level of earnings, pursuant to Sections 42-721.222 and .223 respectively without good cause.

HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

Example A: Jennifer is the mother of a four year old son and lives with her husband, John, who is unaided due to his citizenship status. Jennifer is only required to participate for 20 hours each week to meet the minimum welfare-to-work participation hours as she has months remaining on her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock. However, Jennifer wants to meet CalWORKs federal standards so that months are not counted toward her Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock. Therefore, Jennifer's welfare-to-work plan includes 20 hours of employment and 10 hours of job skills training directly related to employment.

In the week of April 14, Jennifer does not attend her job skills training directly related to employment activity, but she completes her employment hours. In this situation, Jennifer is not subject to a noncompliance process, regardless of the reason she did not attend her job skills training activity, because she met the minimum number of hours (20) that she is required to participate.

Example B: Robert is the father in a one-parent assistance unit made up of three children ages 8, 10 and 11 years old. Robert's welfare-to-work plan states he needs to work an average at least 30 hours per week, which he consistently performs in an unsubsidized employment job and he has months remaining on his Welfare-to-Work 24-Month Time Clock.

In the week of April 13th, Robert voluntarily decreases his hours worked to 25 hours per week without developing a new welfare-to-work plan and as a result is noncompliant and if he does not increase his number of hours worked to the amount required by his welfare-to-work plan, he will be subject to sanction.

Any other exemption or good cause criteria, as described in Sections 42-712 and 42-713 and compliance procedures described in Section 42-721, shall apply to the sanctioned parent's spouse or the family's second parent.
